 A run of 2,000,000 feet of logs was made by the Spaulding Logging company this week from the upper Luckiamute to the mouth of the river where it enters the Willamette near Buena Vista. From this point the logs will be towed to Salina by the steamer City of Eugene and the Gray Eagle. This run was made in quick time on account of the high water. Another crew is working on a bunch of logs from the upper Luckiamute, to be towed in by steamer as soon as they reach the Willamette.

 Card of Thanks.
 We wish to thank our many friends and the Silver Bell circle for the many floral pieces and expressions of sympathy and assistance given us during the illness and loss of our beloved mother.
 HELEN LEISI, SISTERS AND BROTHERS.
 The pictures of George Bartholomew, the supposed murderer of John Lind, show him much younger than he really is, according to several real estate dealers who became well acquainted with him during the week stay of the two men in this city, when looking for a small ranch. Bartholomew appeared to be about 30 years of age, wore good clothes, was a good talker and an intelligent man, and not criminal in appearance, as described by the Portland police.
 The next public library lecture will be Friday evening, December 3. Dr. Macpherson, of Oregon Agricultural college, will deliver his lecture on "Agricultural Credit." Dr. Macpherson was a member of the American commission on agricultural credit to study the systems of Europe so he speaks with a first hand knowledge of his subject. On the printed program Dr. Macpherson was to speak April 21, but, owing to Professor Lewis' inability to be here December 3, Dr. Macpherson will take his place and Professor Lewis will lecture April 21.

Six Men Believed Lost In Frozen Alaska
 Seward, Alaska, Nov. 27.—Somewhere in the rapidly increasing ice floes of Cook inlet, a small boat bearing six frozen men may be drifting. Fred Tracy, general agent of the Alaska Steamship company and five others left the steamship Admiral Farragut as she was steaming toward Seward from Anchorage Tuesday. With others they were aboard scows on which the Farragut was unloading government railroad freight at Anchorage when ice forced the vessel to retire, scows and all. There was no time to land the men. The six now believed lost hoped to save themselves the task of returning to Seward by dog team, and left the Farragut when she was 30 miles out from Anchorage.
